Me on stage? I'd be terrified, dry-throated, and sick to my stomach. No way! But I'm not talking about my singing talents here. I'm talking about a supportive family of Barefoot Writers that helps guide your copywriting career.

Do you want to write full-time for a living?

The Barefoot Writer Club will help you learn about high writing jobs. The step-by-step guidance you receive moves you into the writer's lifestyle. You'll find yourself supported by caring experts who have your back every step of the way.

Mindy continues...

"I may not have discovered copywriting. The community pitched in to help me with my writing skills ...and everyone offered so much ongoing support throughout the years. Members are genuinely interested in helping each other succeed."

Sound too good to be true?

It's not.

Barefoot Writer Club is About Support

The Barefoot Writer Club lays it all out. Everything you need is created, refined, and proven to work. No need to second guess yourself. No need to procrastinate. With the Club, you get access to:

- Cool Tools so you can slash your learning curve with bite-sized training for quick application and enhanced learning,
- A Facebook Group so you can connect with other members and accelerate your transformation through social sharing,
- Member Services so that you can call, email, or chat with a real person who's answered thousands of Club member questions, and
- Expert copywriters who share their best practices like Mindy, Rebecca, Bob, Brian, Pam, Nick, Carol, and many more.

Mindy's core belief is that it's possible to make money as a copywriter with the right guidance. She is living the life every day.

"I almost thought it wasn't going to happen. But it did. A career in copywriting seemed too good to be true. I'd always enjoyed writing, but didn't think I could make money at it," Mindy admitted.

But she also worked hard. And was determined to succeed. She had her setbacks and challenges. Mindy's key to success was the supportive family she found within the Barefoot Writer Club. Thousands of writers, just like you or I, are on their way to being a professional copywriter.

Paid Writing Opportunities

Mindy admitted, “We were over $100,000 in debt — $80,000 in student loan debt and $20,000 in credit card debt. I’m not even going to talk about the mortgage! I’m just a beginner. Last year, I made only $114,000.”

Paul never wrote a thing in his life before becoming a member. No magazine articles. No novels. No short stories. NOTHING. Now, he’s earning more than $300,000 as a professional copywriter.

...then there’s Jake.

“One year after I got my first paid project, I had made $140,000 as a copywriter,” Jake explains. “What other opportunity do you have in 90 days to learn a skill and make six figures your first year doing it?”

Most members aren’t published authors or considered highly trained. Many of them never even wanted to be a copywriter until they heard about the Barefoot Writer Club.

Guided in Your Copywriting Journey

The Barefoot Writer Club offers the tools and community of like-minded writers who’ll help you become a copywriter. You don't have to be talented or have a lot of time, either. What you do need is the determination, motivation, and confidence to get started.

"I make a relatively small investment each month ...and I reap the benefits over and over again. I’ll continue to get this ongoing education as long as I’m part of the Club,” Mindy laughs.

Life-Changing Income as a Copywriter

Barefoot Writer Club members learn:

- how to be a better writer,
- how to make money copywriting, and
- how to find copywriting jobs.

The Barefoot Writer Club starts you on your journey down the path to making money as a copywriter. Choose the best path for you ...or let the 250,000+ community help guide you when you get stuck. And a community of writers is here. No experience needed. No questions un-asked.
